At the end of the term, three children won special governor awards. We are very proud of them and look forward to seeing who wins the awards next term.

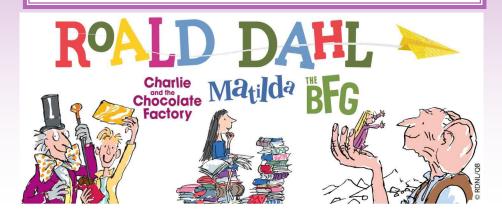

Lots of children also won awards for their fantastic reading at home, well done!

Lets celebrate! Year 3's learning in the Autumn Term...

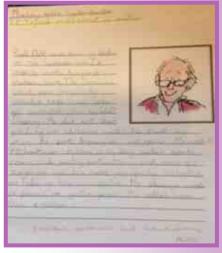

Roald Dahl, Master Storyteller...

Learning about the life of Roald Dahl...

Our research about the life of Roald Dahl revealed lots of interesting facts about him and his writing. He created some unusual vocabulary which we enjoyed interpreting. His characters were based on ordinary people that he met during his life.

Quentin Bloke was boon in 1998 in London.
Quentin Bloke was boon in 1998 in London.
Quentin Bloke was boon in 1998 in London.
The sum of which he shall be do led chawing and he has illustrated own 300 books.
The book he who he illustrated was called A Dook of Wald?
The book he who do was called Patrick he has also written 35 books.
The girst book he illustrated with Road Dook was first book by its girst published his drawings was called Punch.

We then created a burglar alarm in the Young Engineers' academy to go onto the hen house.

This was to notify the farmers when Mr Fox was trying to steal the hens.

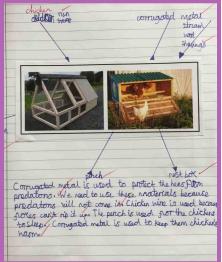

We made a circuit using a battery, wires, an alarm and a light.

Designing and making...

We designed and made hen houses for DT.

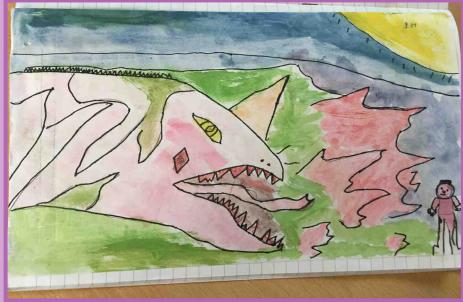

We continued our research with a closer look at the life of Quentin Blake, who is still illustrating Roald Dahl's books even in 2017!

Learning to write stories In the style of Roald Dahl...

Last term, in English we learnt how to write stories like Roald Dahl. We learnt all about the story Fantastic Mr Fox.

We used the structure of this story but changed the main characters to make our own story. We call this innovating!

: To write a narrothe as Indo Mr Wolf has very careful then They were lery lery angry because they only o ot Mr. Wate tanking. Haw unlucky they were!

We also studied the BFG. We watched the new BFG film and learnt all about how his character catches children's dreams. We even came to school in our pyjamas one day! We also created our own dreams and dream jars.
