

PARKFIELD COMMUNITY SCHOOL

NEWSLETTER Thursday 6th February

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope you have had a good week.

It has been wonderful to see so many parents and carers in the Reception maths workshops this week. I chatted to a few parents who were really enthusiastic about how we teach maths here and full of praise for the teaching staff; some parents and carers even wanting to come back to do more they were that impressed! Well done to all the EYFS staff for accommodating everyone and showing off our fantastic teaching here in EYFS at Parkfield.

Next week, see Year 6 visiting RAF Cosford Museum to learn about the technology used in World War 2 in particular the aircraft. I look forward to hearing about this as it is a favourite topic of mine! Please keep an eye out for photos on the website.

Have a great weekend,

James Wright
Head of School

Walk to School Badge Design Competition

Miss Parveen has been so impressed with the wonderful badge designs that have been handed in so far! The last date to hand these in is Monday 10th February! If you need a new template please feel free to collect one from 6P.

Our students at Parkfield have been standing up and telling parents and carers to think before they park.

World Book Day

World Book Day this year will take the form of a Literacy Festival.

Unlike previous years, children will not be asked to dress up as their favourite book character. Other plans for this are being made and will be revealed soon.

Youth Summit - Environmental Issues

This week our pupils will be attending a youth summit held at the University of Birmingham. They will have the chance to explore the impact of different environmental issues on our local and global communities.

Exciting news!

Following a rigorous interview process, I am really pleased to announce that Mr James Wright will be the permanent Head of School of Parkfield Community School from henceforth. I have every confidence that Mr Wright will help the school grow and achieve great things.

My congratulations go to Mr Wright and I look forward to continuing to work with him.

Regards,
Hazel Pulley
CEO

Congratulations to 3C: you scored amazingly last week!

Your challenge is to score 50,000!

This week is 'Find the Strength' - a project looking into developing mental strength, as well as raising awareness around mental health issues experienced by children across the country. Ask your child what they have learnt, how it made them feel and what they would like to do in the future.

Please turn over
